WEENSA POTTER,
Wholesale Druggists, 134 Washington-st., Boston. Thousands of Dollars are lost in time by farment and business men, when a few dimes expended for the proper remedy at the right time, would have saved all pain and travolle. Pain to but a friendly admenition, and nature werns us in time. Some men are skepticul and selfah, others hopeful and generous, note have the right to disregard the offering child or the paor of ignorant. The rich can travel lovel miles and pay $1,990 fees, cure or no cure. But What of the Poor?

When on earth, Christ invariably commonded every good work; the act of the Good Sumaritan, and all useful and edition that for for man's auto-invarian, and the decasted His every waking hour to mostlish efforts no time for malignant fault-In that spirit should every one welcome a real benefaction, like by Garteria R. Surre's "Elec-tric Oil," of Philodelphia, a remedial so unlike any other known, as to attract the instant notice of we died men an I all sufferers. The great cures daily made are not miracu-lous, and red seem like enchantment. Considerable stars have been offered for the preparation— and some dealers self as high as 100 to 209 bottles in a single day.
